

God's Majestic Power

Psalm 68:1–8 (HCSB)
1. God arises. His enemies scatter, and those who hate Him flee from His presence. 2. As smoke is blown away, so You blow them away. As wax melts before the fire, so the wicked are destroyed before God. 3. But the righteous are glad; they rejoice before God and celebrate with joy. 4. Sing to God! Sing praises to His name. Exalt Him who rides on the clouds — His name is Yahweh (Jah-kiv) —and rejoice before Him.	5. God in His holy dwelling is a father of the fatherless and a champion of widows. 6. God provides homes for those who are deserted. He leads out the prisoners to prosperity, but the rebellious live in a scorched land. 7. God, when You went out before Your people, when You marched through the desert, Selah 8. the earth trembled and the skies poured down rain before God, the God of Sinai, before God, the God of Israel.

Elihu described God as majestic (having or showing impressive beauty or dignity:

"watching majestic eagles soar along the Mississippi"), and the only supernatural one, who reigns supreme on earth. Indeed, God is the greatest of all beings, and all people ought to proclaim his dominion. His power cannot be compared with anyone or anything. There is no one like him, no one can do the things he does. All power in heaven and earth bows to His majestic nature. Elihu talked about God, saying;

"As for the Almighty, we cannot find Him; He is excellent in power, In judgment and abundant justice; He does not oppress" (Job 37:23).

God's Power Is Unimaginable & Incomparable

People ought to reference God's unique ability as they praise him. God is great in power and possess superb creative abilities beyond our comprehension! A mere looking at the sky tells many things about God. He set the clouds in layers, and decorated it with amazing color formations. The sun adds a different type of beauty to the sky, as it rises in the west and sets in the east. All these things prove the greatness of God!
